

Evaluation Form

Preacher: _____ Date: _____

Text: _____ Title: _____

Theme: _____

2: Make the Point

3: Engage the Problem

Apprehension

tagline:

The preacher had a significant point, faithful to the Bible passage and relevant to my life.

The preacher's explanations were clear and compelling, not shallow and simplistic.

The preacher wouldn't let me off easily, but helped me consider deeper implications.

tagline:

The preacher "read my mind," taking seriously my honest objections and concerns.

Head

What's the Point?

What's the Problem?

Text

Today

What's the Story?

What's the Difference?

The preacher quickly aroused my interest. I was emotionally engaged in the sermon.

The preacher helped me imagine how this message could change my world.

The preacher helped me identify with the people and issues of the original Bible story.

The preacher made me want to respond obediently to whatever God was calling me.

Heart

tagline:

tagline:

1: Tell the Story

4: Imagine the Difference

Apprehension

The preacher looked me in the eye and appeared comfortable and confident throughout.

The preacher appeared to value me as a listener. I did not feel abused or manipulated.

Use other side for further comments...

Copyright Dr. Kenton C. Anderson, 2001